BEHOLD!! THIS BEAUTIFUL GIRL WITH CAT'S EARS AND A TAIL...
THIS IS THE FIGURE OF THE "ALIEN"
WHO CAME TO EARTH SEEKING FRIENDSHIP!!
THEY SPEAK IN A LANGUAGE SIMILAR TO JAPANESE.
NO, WE CAN SAY THAT THEY SPEAK A LANGUAGE ALMOST EXACTLY THE SAME AS JAPANESE.
AND THEY CLAIM TO BE FROM THE HUGE SAUCER CURRENTLY FLOATING OVER NAHA PORT!!!!
Filming from Nahaoohashi
THAT SAUCER IS AMAZING ISN'T IT?
I FIRST THOUGHT IT'S SOME KIND OF A JOKE, BUT...

T/N: Nahaoohashi - Naha Big Bridge

Woa...

It's quite amazing...
We talked with the chief and the captain.
Now that we found out that our appearance doesn't cause much discomfort...
we decided it's safe to show ourselves openly.
This way we have regain of not scaring any but events

Seems like reports are calming down a little.

Huh. But...
It may be too forceful, but our goal is to present them with fait accompli.

But even though it's such a hot topic on TV.. it's so quiet around us it feels weird...
Looks like news started to get censored since a little while ago.
The news were all over it at first, though.

They probably can't make the connection between the alien who made a grand entrance on TV and Elis.

Everyone seems to think we are in the spaceship above the sea, so I don't think they even considered I'm wandering on the ground by myself.

At the time, we were taking things all to easy.

And airing Elis' figure on TV would create consequences we had no way to know about...
Why was mass media acting so lackadaisical...

Catia Ship Analysis Squad Leader Chayka
Although our languages are the same, currency and circulating capital's aren't, as would be expected.
Well, it can't be helped. If we don't get some measure of support...

Note: Chayka - Russian for "seagull"

Our partner is the Japanese government!!
These negotiations will also be important as the test for the future.
If possible, we would like to go as far as to the level of offical diplomatic relations...
but it's probably not possible.
If we can't enter official diplomatic relations, our crew on the ship won't be able to get down on the ground at their leisure.

How many are on board that ship?
About thirty thousand... I think?
There's indeed quite a number.

And so, I want to have a talk with you...

I think there will be complaints, but they will be dealt with at captain's discretion.
Everyone is eager to set their foot on the ground.

We would like to have your permission to use this Kokozu residence as o temporory Cotion Embossy!
Of course, there won't be mony Cotions flooding in here or onything.
Just as before, only Elis will remoin here.
ペコリ
Our coptoin requests this in order to hove o bose on the ground to further continue the negotiotions.
I beg of you too.
Oh, please, it's fine Chayka-san!
If it's going to be the same way as it has been I'm fine with it.

There is a phrase like, "make the first move", so we need to have something that can overwhelm the other side.
All right. Now we'll have to take the advantage in our negotiations with the Japanese government!
... Any good ideo...
Elis, if you come up with a good ideo, let me know right away.
So I would like to find companions among people on Earth to protect us and act with us in case of emergency.
Since Elis was already targetted before, I think this not exactly safe situation will continue for a while.
And, I have to rely on Kio-kun for this, but...
Companions...
Pleose choose someone reliable.
I leave the selection of suitable people to you.

Kio-cchi...
Are you here?

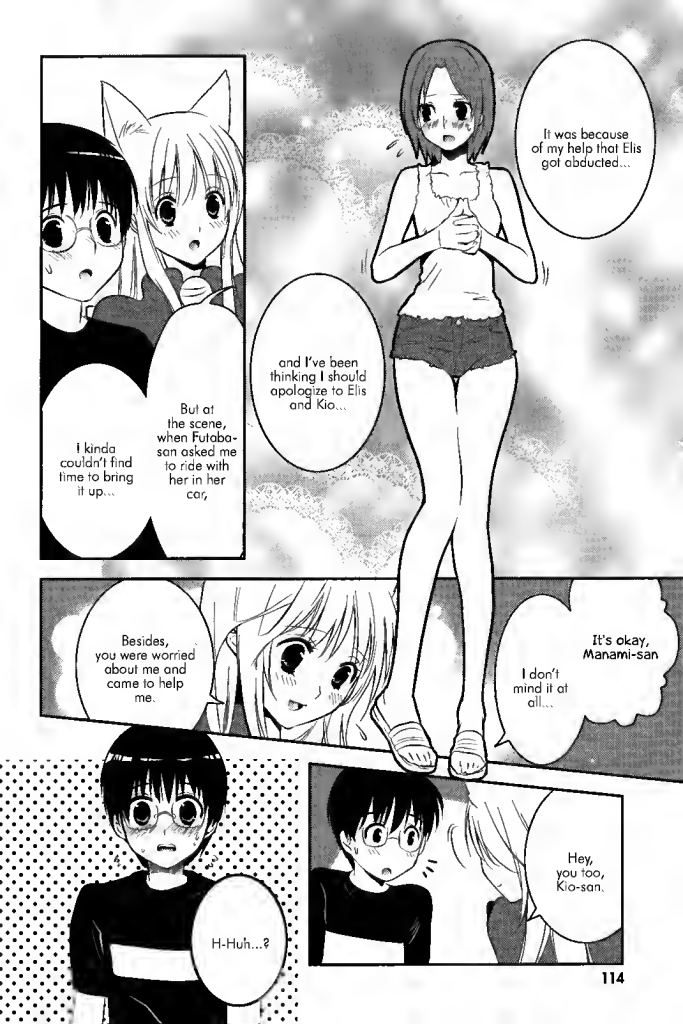
It has been pretty busy since then, and I couldn't get a chance to say this to you, but...
U-Um...
Sorry!!
I'm so sorry!!!!



It was because of my help that Elis got abducted... and I've been thinking I should apologize to Elis and Kio...
But at the scene, when Futaba-san asked me to ride with her in her car,
I kinda couldn't find time to bring it up...
It's okay, Manami-san
I don't mind it at all...
Besides, you were worried about me and came to help me.
Hey, you too, Kio-san.
H-Huh...?

Sorry, I completely forgot all about that...

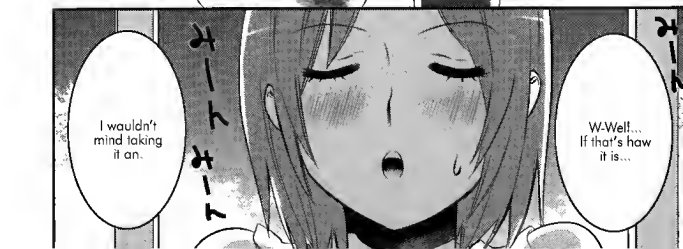
Companion of Catia's Embassy!
Manami-chan would be perfect for the job, don't you think?
With Manami-san I will feel safe too.
and she has CIA experience too!!
She seems to be familiar with weapons,
That's a good idea!!
What...

Explaining the. Situation.



Well, on the other hand it's probably that transcendental generosity.
which makes Kio so charming...
Geez, yet I already sold her off to her enemy though...
It's because Kiacchi is like that,
that this alien can absolutely trust him...
I kinda hate dancing on top of his hand like that though...
I was able to save my relationship with Kiocchi, so whatever...
Oh, wait.
What is it?
There is another person other than me...
who I believe is suitable for the job.

M...

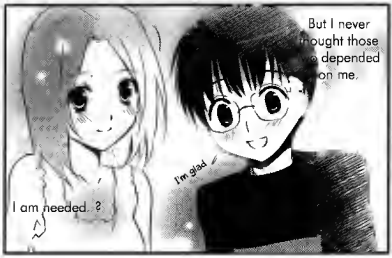
I think it would be great if Futaba-san would be an aur side, taa.
Hey, let's cantinue ta wark tagether!
But it's a sudden request, sa if it isn't very canvenient for yau...
No!!
No, it's okay...
Please.. let me da it.



But I never thought those depended on me.
I'm glad
I am needed. ?

If I could make up for that, even a little...
I haven't told Kakazu-kun about this yet, though...

Since the day I was cast away...
I didn't think anyone would need my very existence...

That?
Oh yeah, I guess now seems to be a good time, so I should show you that...
Thank you very much! Manami-san, Futaba-san...

I contacted the mothership right after that,
and had them reflect on the results and made a couple of this vanation model!

For now, this "Yunfa" is for Manami-san!
I will ask for another one for Futaba-san so please wait for a while.
Yu-"Yunfa"?
Where did you send them and what is Elis?
That?
It could be dangerous, be careful!
Oh, that's dangerous to touch. The ball has that thing inside...
You said weapons, but isn't this a toy...?
How rude
That bunny decides on its own to make it's master lose it, right?
My head hurts...
Is this... what Elis' assist-a-roids used to vanish the tank in a blink...

Um...
Thank you both for accepting the position.
Um...
I guess this way would be better.
Futaba-san, have you seen this before?
Bring that to here.

Yeah!!!
Yeah... that's kinda awkward.
Anyway, please take care of me from now on!
Yay, you lose, Kio ♪
What's that about?
Ouch!!
Futaba-san looks drunk... It's pretty hot.
It was warm... And sweet...
N-No... I'm fine...
Oh, sorry. You didn't like it, Futaba-san?

Then, see you later!!

Yes.
Later...

The government said that since they appeared so openly, there is no way to decline...
What did the Japanese government say?

It's a shame that we couldn't stop the media at the very beginning too
We've started moving in the background to some extent...
In particular, we've been cutting off the coordination and synapses between press, trying to not let them stir up the public.
What's done is done, so it can't be helped.
We have made counter-measures to respond to their entire race as a whole
The problem is the shartstaps that made their appearance public...

I have high expectations of you, First lieutenant Janes
Yes Sir!!!
I shall start the mission now!

Hmmm... It's unexpected, but it may be a good idea.
All right, I will have a talk with the Captain about this.
...So how about this plan...?
...Hey Elis.
Well, I think this definitely will happen...
But if the diplomatic relations will be postponed, you would be the only one who can stay there.
No matter what happens to you, we can't just go down on ground and make a scene.
We would be putting the burden on you alone...
...Yes
Really, we want to go down so much too!!
Eating real yakiniku would be the best...

I think so too.
Yes!
That makes me really glad.
